Three racers earn landmark wins at Off Road Speedway

By RANDY POSPISHIL

sports@norfolkdailynews.com Aug 10, 2025

Two drivers posted career firsts during Saturday night's racing action at Off Road Speedway, while another established a noteworthy legacy achievement. Norfolk's Jimmy Benck earned his first Off Road Speedway "A" feature win in the Crown Vic division while Alyssa Thies of Mapleton, Iowa, secured her first victory in the Pro Stock 4 class. On the other end of the racing spectrum, a win in the IMCA Hobby Stock "A" feature allowed longtime Neligh racer Jason Wilkinson to celebrate the 150th victory in his success-filled career.

While Wilkinson's presence in Victory Lane has been frequent over the years, Thies had been the victim of a season filled with bad luck — especially the past two weeks, when she held the lead late in races only to see misfortune strike during the final lap. "I've had bad luck for a long time now, and not just here (at Off Road Speedway), bad luck everywhere," Thies said. "Two weeks ago my transmission broke, and then last week I got a flat tire — both times with one lap to go. I was very mad, to say the least. "I just wanted the win, and we were so close. I was pretty upset. But our luck had been so bad, I guess we weren't too surprised that bad things kept happening." The 25-year-old Thies, who said she also races at Crawford County Raceway in Denison, Iowa, along with Park Jefferson in Sioux City and occasionally Harlan, Iowa, had been looking for her first win ever since beginning her racing career midway through the 2024 season. She said her interest in racing comes from her father, Jim, who raced Modifieds for more than 30 years. On Saturday, Thies — starting on the outside of row two — took the lead on the second lap then, using the high line on the track, promptly established and held a straightaway-length lead during the remaining eight laps for the victory. "(Winning) feels very good. I'm very proud of us," Thies said. "My dad helps me, but we don't really know much about these engines — they're way different than the crate engines he ran in the Modifieds — so we talk to everybody to see what they're doing." Bentley and Brenden Fleming of Norfolk followed Thies across the finish line to take second and third place, respectively.

Similarly, Benck's win in the Crown Vic's "A" feature also involved taking the lead two laps in the race and establishing a significant lead that became the winning margin. Kelly Mielke of Norfolk finished second with Neligh's Damon Arehart taking third place.

In IMCA features, Cameron Meyer of Pierce added to his points lead in a 21-car IMCA SportMods "A" feature. Meyer, starting five rows back in the 11-row field, pulled alongside pole-sitter and race leader Brayden Weller just three laps into the 15-lap race, establishing a substantial lead that disappeared with the arrival of three separate cautions — including the last that created a green-white-checkered finish. Meyer quickly pulled away from the field, however, to earn his fifth overall win of the season, while Jacob Slough of Doniphan finished just ahead of Sloan, Iowa, driver Willy Kirk in the battle for second and third place.

Anthony Roth led just one lap — the last one — while winning the IMCA Late Models feature. Roth caught and pulled even with race leader Devin Johnson on the outside during turns three and four of the white flag lap, then edged Johnson for the win, even as the two cars had made contact exiting turn four side-by-side of the final lap. Johnson, of Bloomfield, received second place with Norfolkian Chase Osborne taking third.

Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh won his second IMCA Stock Cars "A" feature in a row at Off Road Speedway in dramatic fashion. Cameron Wilkinson, who began the race on the inside of the sixth of nine rows, made his way into the lead with a daring high-to-low line move entering....

turn 3 with six laps remaining, then established a multi-car length lead over the field. Behind Cameron Wilkinson, Norfolk's Tejay Mielke held on for second place ahead of third-place finisher Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh.

Getting to the front from the third row of a 20-car field in the IMCA Hobby Stocks "A" feature took Jason Wilkinson just six laps to accomplish, as the Neligh driver passed race leader Jordan Uehling on the bottom line of the track. Three cautions during the final six laps returned the field to his rear bumper, but on each restart Jason Wilkinson was able to re-establish a comfortable advantage before wrapping up the win. Uehling, of Norfolk, finished second while Travis Landauer of Albion was third.

Just three Saturday nights of racing remain at Off Road Speedway in the season, with this week being a regular night followed by the Lynn Langenberg Memorial on Aug. 23 before championship night/fan appreciation night on Aug. 30 completes the schedule.
