Front row starting position helpful but not a sure thing

By RANDY Pospishil

Matt Haase (02) of Norfolk won the IMCA Late Model feature race at Off Road Speedway outside of Norfolk on Saturday. A starting position in the front row helps, but as the winners of Saturday night's features at Off Road Speedway proved yet again, starting up front is no sure thing. Taking advantage of starting on the pole, Cameron Wilkinson led all 15 laps during his IMCA Stock Cars victory and Matt Haase stayed out front for all 25 laps of the IMCA Late Models feature. Similarly, Hunter Betzen converted a starting position on the outside of the first row into a win in the Crown Vics race.

Of those three winners, Wilkinson, of Neligh, had the smoothest trip — handling the race's only caution three laps into the 15-lap competition, then pulling away as the field spread out behind him. The other battle in the race was for second place where Norfolk's Kaden Reynolds held off repeated challenges from Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh as the two finished in second and third place, respectively.

Although Haase led the 13-car field the entire distance, the Norfolk driver faced the return of the primary challengers to his rear bumper due to four cautions during the first seven laps of the race. Haase's primary competitor was second-place finisher Landen Rojewski of Hampton, who started on the outside in the first row and chased Haase all 25 laps — pulling even for a pair of laps following the final caution — before the two separated from the rest of the field.

Cody Malasek (1M) of Emerson won the IMCA Hobby Stock feature race at OffRoad Speedway outside of Norfolk on Saturday.

Justin Addison of Meadow Grove came from the third starting spot to win the IMCA SportMods feature. Addison, a Meadow Grove racer, secured first place, while Meyer of Pierce added a second place finish to last week's victory, with Roebuck recovering to take third.

Johnny Thomas of Beatrice won the IMCA Sport Compacts feature race by moving up from a three-way battle with the two cars that had started in the first row ahead of him and lasted for the first four laps. Thomas got the lead three laps later and held it for the final five trips around the track. Meanwhile, Gilbert Aldape of Sioux City, Iowa, finished just ahead of Pierce driver Kiegan Werner to take second with Werner finishing third.
