Racing returns to Off Road Speedway

By RANDY POSPISHIL

sports@norfolkdailynews.com Jun 7, 2026

After two consecutive rainouts, dirt track racing returned to Off Road Speedway on Saturday night.

In some ways, it was similar to an opening night with cars ending up upside down, disqualifications and drivers being penalized for passing cars during the start or causing cautions by taking overly-eager risks.

Winning drivers found their way into Victory Lane through a variety of circumstances.

The first race of the night – an “A” feature involving 20 IMCA Hobby Stocks, cars which regularly require several cautions and restarts – went all 20 laps in a green-white-checkered caution-free race.

Neligh’s Jason Wilkinson, starting on the inside of row four, joined the competition at the front of the pack of 20 cars within the first two laps and steadily closed the gap behind early leader Dalton Young during the next 16 laps.

Wilkinson got his chance to get to the front as the pair caught up to lapped traffic with five laps remaining.

Using the slower car as a blocker, Wilkinson darted past Young on the inside, while Young was forced to slow and follow Wilkinson as the two continued to tick off the final four laps.

With Wilkinson and Young, of Albion, taking first and second, respectively, a disqualification moved Juniata driver Tyler Thompson into third place.

A battle of cousins determined the first two places in the IMCA Late Models feature.

Plainview’s Beau Johnson – who began the race on the inside of row three – was able to overcome Devin Johnson’s starting position on the pole, moving up during restarts following two cautions on laps five and seven to make an appearance among the top three with 14 laps left in the 25-lap feature.

Six laps later, Beau Johnson was able to take over second place by passing Nelson Vollbrecht after another caution and quickly joined Devin Johnson in a back-and-forth battle before finally grabbing the lead with a pass on the high side of the track as the cars exited turn four. Despite one last caution forcing a single-file restart during a green-white-checkered finish of the last two laps, Beau Johnson wrapped up the win, with Devin Johnson of Bloomfield taking second and Stanton’s Vollbrecht finishing third.

The IMCA Stock Cars feature, on the other hand, saw the Wilkinson brothers of Neligh – Cameron and Kyle – spend 15 of the race’s 18 laps fighting over the lead.

Although two cautions returned the field, and Kyle, to his rear bumper, Cameron Wilkinson never relinquished his position at the front of the pack. Meanwhile, Kyle Wilkinson held off several challenges by eventual third-place finisher Kaden Reynolds of Norfolk before clinching second.

Genoa driver James Roebuck went wire-to-wire to win the IMCA SportMods “A” feature, moving quickly from the outside of row one to obtain the lead on the first lap and holding it even though Cameron Meyer of Pierce spent the final 17 laps of the 20-lap event seeking an opportunity to pass.

Roebuck earned the win by holding off Meyer during two restarts with cautions at the 15-lap mark and again with 10 laps left, as well as successfully navigating lapped traffic during the final four laps.

Meyer finished second ahead of Neligh’s Kyle Wilkinson, who came out on top of a multi-car competition for third.

As the field in the IMCA Sport Compacts feature race dwindled after chaos on the opening lap, Norfolk’s Bentley Freeman took over the lead and held it 11-straight laps for the win. Beatrice racer Johnny Thomas eventually secured second place while Chris McAtee of Firth took third.

Successfully dealing with lapped cars also aided Neligh’s Damon Arehart in his win in the Crown Vics feature race.

Arehart had lost his lead to Norfolk driver Aden Mielke with six laps remaining but got it back three laps later when lapped traffic inadvertently screened Mielke, allowing Arehart to squeeze by both cars into the front spot.

Arehart then finished the last three laps in the lead for the victory with Kaleb Bruggemann of Allen and Gage Kimmel of Hoskins moving into second and third-place, respectively, as Mielke’s car lost power and fell back among the other cars in the field.
