Off Road Speedway track surface provides drivers with choices

By RANDY POSPISHIL

The track surface at Off Road Speedway went through a series of changes during Saturday night's regular program of racing.

After the heat races, during intermission, the track crew farmed the racing surface — tilling, aerating, adding water and mixing the top layers of the track to restore consistent cushion, moisture and compaction — with the intention of providing more lines for drivers to use during the feature races.

For the drivers, this meant making adjustments to their choice of the line they would drive, and those who did created opportunities for a spot in Victory Lane.

First on the track were the IMCA Hobby Stocks and, after several laps of the cars rolling the moisture in, the 20 cars began the 20-lap feature. Eventual winner Dalton Young evidently found the track to his liking, pulling away from a persistent pursuit from Neligh's Nate Buck during the first 13 of those laps to a wire-to-wire win — his first Off Road Speedway win of the season. Along the way, Young, of Albion, successfully handled the feature's lone caution and also weaved his way through lapped traffic en route to the victory. Buck, who was presented with a more difficult path by lapped cars, finished second, with Tyler Thompson of Juniata taking third.

The IMCA Sport Compacts' feature consisted of just six cars, which by mid-race separated into two groups of three, with eventual winner Kiegan Werner of Pierce leading all 10 laps while Johnny Thomas and Bentley Freeman contended for second place behind him. Thomas, of Beatrice, pulled ahead of Freeman early in the race and held on to earn second, with Norfolk driver Freeman settling for third.

With the track packed tightly after the first two features, the IMCA Late Models had noticeable options — driving the bottom of the track or running a line higher on the surface, with some drivers testing both during the feature's 25 laps. Early leader Kaleb Jasperson gave way to Landen Rojewski during the first of three cautions, while Ben Sukup battled with Beau Johnson for second place behind him.

Although Rojewski used the high side of the track to hold the lead for the next seven laps, the Hampton driver was forced from the race with car trouble with 13 laps left after relinquishing the lead to Johnson.

Johnson then held off repeated challenges from Sukup during the final 10 laps, even as the field spread out behind them. Johnson, of Plainview, recorded his second consecutive Off Road Speedway win of the season, with Norfolk's Sukup picking up a second-place finish and Stanton racer Nelson Vollbrecht taking third.

The race of the night may have been the IMCA SportMods “A” feature in which Pierce’s Cameron Meyer’s win came the hard way — moving up from near the back of the 12-car field to wrest the lead from Norfolk driver Jonathan Jensen with just three laps left by using the high side of the track to gain momentum, especially exiting turn four. Meyer was still behind Jensen during a caution and restart with five laps left but pulled even leaving turn two as the cars raced down the back stretch. Although Jensen appeared to have the advantage entering turn three, Meyer’s use of the high line allowed him to take over the lead as the pair entered the front stretch — even though the cars made side-by-side contact with each other, forcing Meyer to skid briefly along the wall before passing Jensen. The two cars continued to compete during the final three laps, with Meyer staying on the high side to remain in the front spot for the win.

Jensen finished in second, with Spencer Galaway of York taking third place.

Norfolk’s Tejay Mielke won the IMCA Stock Cars feature, seizing the lead immediately and leading all 15 laps—most by the length of the straightaway as the field spread out behind him.

Neligh driver Cameron Wilkinson, who finished second, also established a multi-car length lead over third-place finisher Joey Jatton of Wagner, SD.

Aden Mielke of Norfolk celebrated his 16th birthday with a victory in the Crown Vics feature, establishing and maintaining a straightaway-length lead ahead of Neligh’s Damon Arehart and Columbus driver Grayson Stobbe who finished second and third, respectively.
