Last lap passing determines Off Road Speedway winners at Independence Day special

By RANDY POSPISHIL

sports@norfolkdailynews.com Jul 4, 2026

The end of the night fireworks display at Off Road Speedway on Friday night was top-notch entertainment, and so was the action in the “A” features of the six regular divisions of racing where four of the six feature winners in the track's Independence Day special weren't determined until the final lap.

In possibly the best race of the night, Neligh's Chuck Sands' spot in Victory Lane in the IMCA Stock Cars “A” feature wasn't secure until electronic scoring confirmed his too-close-to-call nudge past the bumper of Tejay Mielke's car at the finish line. Despite starting on the pole, Sands fell back as far as third place just before the race's third caution with eight laps left and was still in a battle with Wayne's Chad Bruns for second with two laps remaining following the restart of the feature's fourth and final caution. Sands, who won at Off Road Speedway for the first time this season, spoiled the bid by Norfolk's Mielke for a third straight feature win while Bruns added a fourth top-10 finish by taking third place.

In the IMCA Hobby Stocks feature, Ryan Fajman of Albion gradually moved forward from a starting position six rows deep in the 10 rows of cars before eventually pulling even with Norfolk's Jordan Uehling — the front runner for the first 18 laps of the 20-lap race.

Fajman finally broke free of a door-to-door deadlock with Uehling as the cars exited turn four during the final lap to earn the win. Uehling, the previous week's feature winner, was second with Travis Landauer of Albion finishing in third place.

Justin Addison won at Off Road Speedway for the first time this season in the IMCA SportMods “A” feature and — after a starting position in the last of six rows — had to navigate nearly the entire field of cars to do so. Following a caution and restart with eight laps left, Addison made his appearance in the middle of a three-car competition with Colby Langenberg on the outside and Kyler Rojewski on the inside. Just as Addison got the lead, another caution occurred due to debris on the racing surface, but the Meadow Grove driver maintained his position and, despite yet another caution with just three laps remaining, stayed ahead of both Langenberg and a late challenge by James Roebuck. Langenberg, of Norfolk, finished second with Genoa's Roebuck taking third place.

Johnnie Thomas led most of the 12 laps during his IMCA Sport Compacts victory.

Thomas, a Beatrice driver, worked his way through a three-way collection of cars — including Sam Cordner and Bentley Freeman — to pull even with early leader Kiegan Werner with just three laps completed. One lap later, Thomas used the bottom line of the track to pass Werner and, by the last four laps, had built a multi-car advantage as he cruised to the win. A late pass by Freeman with two laps remaining gave the Norfolkian second place, forcing Werner, of Pierce, to settle for third.

Although Damon Arehart won the Crown Vics “A” feature and led eight of the race's 10 laps in the process, the Neligh driver's win wasn't secured until a caution with two laps left forced a single-file sprint to the finish on the restart. Arehart maintained his lead while Gage Kimmel of Hoskins hung on for second place ahead of a late bid during the final four laps by Norfolk's Aiden Mielke, who took third.

Only Chase Osborne, the feature winner in the IMCA Late Models class, spent the entire race in the lead. Osborne, who caught a break when an adjustment in the starting grid moved him up from the outside of row two into the front row, edged pole-sitter Landen Rojewski's immediate bid for the lead and stayed ahead of the pack for all 20 laps despite two cautions that kept his competition close behind him. Various contenders pursued Osborne, including Rojewski, but his car was incapacitated after contacting the wall in turn three. Matt Haase and Devin Johnson joined the chase until both were passed by Ben Sukup, leaving Sukup — along with Nelson Vollbrecht and Beau Johnson — as challengers. But by then, with eight laps remaining, Osborne had established a straight away-length lead as he secured the win. Sukup, of Norfolk, held off Plainview's Beau Johnson to notch second, with Johnson taking third place.
