Eric Haase (45) won his first feature of the season and his second career feature at the track.

Haase, Jensen capture victories

Eric Haase and Jonathan Jensen, both of Norfolk, picked up feature wins in the SportMod division.

It was Haase's second win at the track, but for Jensen it was his first career victory.

The first feature had Haase leading all 18 laps in a feature that saw two cautions.

Haase first was challenged by cousin Joey Haase of Norfolk. However, as Joey moved alongside a caution came out.

On the restart, Joey fell back, and Robbie Thome of Spalding started working on Eric Haase. Thome managed to get alongside as they took the white flag, but Thome could not make the pass.

Eric Haase took the win and Thome was second. Joey Haase tried to get to the inside of Thome in the final two turns but slid up the track and Kyle Prauner of Norfolk drove to a third-place finish. Joey Haase was fourth and James Roebuck of Genoa overcame spinning out earlier to finish fifth.

In the second feature, Jensen led all 20 laps as the rookie driver captured his first win in only his fourth start at the track.

The race had two cautions. Following the second restart, Joey Haase tried several times to get to the inside of Jensen, but Jensen never wavered and went on to victory.

Joey Haase was second. Cameron Meyer of Pierce, borrowing the injured Colby Langenberg's car, made a last lap pass on Tyler Afrank of Norfolk to finish third. Afrank was fourth with Wes Hochstein of Randolph taking fifth.

Ramsey Meyer races with Bo Cleveland (26) in their heat race. Meyer won both features last week. It was his fourth feature win of the season and 38th career win at the track.

Meyer takes both features

Leading 17 of the 22 laps in the two features combined, Ramsey Meyer picked up another two wins last week.

The Pierce driver has four wins on the season.

The battle for second in each feature was where the action was. Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton and Mark Benedict swapped positions from the first feature to the second feature.

Benedict and Vollbrecht raced side-by-side for several laps in the first feature until Vollbrecht got the advantage.

Just after the pass, a red flag came out.

The stoppage came when Dylan Kesting of Hoskins lost it, flipped over and landed back on his wheels.

Following the red, Benedict was able to get to the inside of Vollbrecht making the pass into turn one.

Benedict held off Vollbrecht to take second.

In the second feature, Benedict and Vollbrecht went at again. This time Vollbrecht got the upper hand took the second position and Benedict was third.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26) races Kyle Shutt (12s) and Travis Coover (711) in their heat race. Hoskinson used the high side in the feature as well to win his first feature of the season. He was third in the other feature.

Hoskinson, Wilkinson take feature victories

It came down to the final lap in each of the two features run last week, when Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh and Norfolk Jeremy Hoskinson each made a last lap pass to win their respective feature races.

Wilkinson's win came after catching Mark Arduser of Battle Creek, who had led 12 of 15 laps, with two laps remaining.

The drivers battled side-by-side for a lap until Wilkinson got a good run out of turn two on the final lap to jump into the lead. Wilkinson won by a car length.

Wilkinson took his third win of the season. Arduser was second. It was his best finish since missing most of the 2017 season. Third went to Hoskinson.

For Hoskinson in the second feature, he only led the race for half a straightaway – from the exit of turn four to the finish line.

Jay Poessnecker of Ames led eight laps after Nate DeSive of O'Neill led five and Stephanie Reynolds led the first one.

As the field took the white flag, Poessnecker had a car length lead on Hoskinson, who had just passed DeSive.

Both Poessnecker and Hoskinson were running the high line, but Hoskinson managed to get a good run out of turn two to get alongside Poessnecker.

The two ran close together down the backstretch battling to get to the better racing groove in turns three and four.

Hoskinson got a better run out of the final corner and edged out Poessnecker by a bumper.

It was Wilkinson's first win of the season. Poessnecker took second and DeSive was third.
