Colby Langenberg (1J) won his won the Lynn Langenberg Classic feature, his second feature win of the season.

Langenberg grabs Classic victory

For most of the SportMod feature, Battle Creek racers, Logan Fernau and Jeremy Gnat battled side-by-side, however, Colby Langenberg of Norfolk stole the show and the feature win.

Langenberg had extra reasons to win that night as it was in honor of his uncle, Lynn Langenberg, who lost his battle to cancer a couple of years ago.

Fernau and Gnat raced the first 11 laps together, exchanging the lead three times. Cameron Meyer of Pierce stuck his car into the mix on lap 12. By then Langenberg was banging on the back bumpers of all three top drivers.

And in one lap, Langenberg went from fourth to first, however, he struck the front stretch wall and Meyer came back to lead lap 17.

After two quick cautions, Langenberg jumped out front to lead the final three laps for his second win of the season.

Meyer held off a charging Joey Haase of Norfolk in the final laps. Meyer was second and Haase finished third.

Fernau took his first top 5 of the season at the fourth position. Eric Haase of Norfolk passed Gnat to take the fifth spot. Gnat was sixth.

Bo Cleveland (3B) led two laps in the feature and finish fifth for his first top 5.

Tanner Uehling (58T) took his seventh top 5, finishing third in the feature.

Meyer does it again

Starting on the outside of the fourth row, Ramsey Meyer busted through the middle of the field and won his eighth feature of the season.

Bo Cleveland of Norfolk led the first two laps before Meyer jumped out front to lead the final 10 laps to pick up his eighth straight and perfect season.

It then came down to a race for the second position between Parker Vollbrecht of Stanton and Tanner Uehling of Norfolk. Vollbrecht held the position for most of the race as Uehling attempted to get around.

Vollbrecht took second place as Uehling finished third right behind him.

Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk finished fourth.

Cleveland took his first top 5 by a half-car-length in front of Bristol Arneson of Norfolk.

Parker Vollbrecht (12x) and Shannon Pospisil (00) race in their heat race. Pospisil won the heat race. Vollbrecht later finished second in the feature, as Pospisil was fourth.

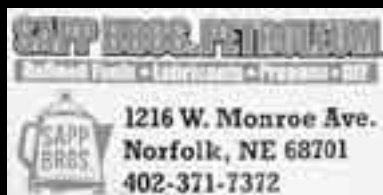

Wes Hochstein takes the checkered first in his heat race.

Eric Haase (45) tries to hold off Cameron Meyer (21) in their heat race. Meyer won the heat and later finished second in the feature. Haase took a fifth place.

Dusty Poessnecker (22P) takes the checkered in his heat race.

Chris Johnson (73) and Zach Zentner (22z) battle for the lead in the feature. Johnson picked up his second win of the season. Zentner took home sixth.

Johnson wins second feature

Chris Johnson saw the door open and he quickly filled the space to make the pass for the lead and the eventual race win.

The Bloomfield driver followed Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton for 16 laps before lap traffic gave Johnson a shot for the lead.

Vollbrecht started on the pole and ran the inside line for most of the 25-lap feature.

A footnote here, Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids had the high side working, but after leading lap 12, something happened to his car and he faded to a sixth-place finish.

But Vollbrecht never faltered as Zentner stormed past and then faded. Just after Vollbrecht regained the lead, the leaders caught the back of the field.

Vollbrecht drove a higher line to easily get by the lapped traffic, however, after clearing the last group, Johnson was able to get to the bottom groove and slip past Vollbrecht.

Vollbrecht led 15 laps and Johnson led the final nine. It was Johnson's second win of the season. Vollbrecht took second for his fourth top 5 and best effort so far this season.

Chase Osborne of Norfolk took third, Travis Birkley of Wakefield finished fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Jim Johnson of Plainview.

Sal Hernandez took his second win of the season.

Gage Koch leads a group out of four during his heat race. He won the his second heat race for the season.

Nick Bruegman (64) won his heat race and later placed second in the feature after leading nine laps.

Hernandez grabs victory

Six cautions plagued the Hobby Stock feature and on the final restart, Sal Hernandez of Columbus pulled off his second win of the season.

Hernandez broke into the top 3 on lap four and was battling for the lead with Nick Bruegman of Elkhorn on lap six. He took the lead on lap nine and led two laps before the caution was thrown.

Bruegman was lined up out front by officials and Hernandez had to make the pass for the lead again. Hernandez was back out front by lap 12 of the 16-lap feature.

Hernandez pulled away, as Bruegman started getting pressure from Lance Mielke of Norfolk. The two cars went side-by-side for several laps.

Mielke completed the pass as they took the white flag, but he suffered a flat tire going in to turn one. Bruegman got back by Mielke, as both Lee Kracht of Scribner and Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh were now in the picture.

Bruegman managed to hold off Kracht for second. Kracht was third.

Wilkinson tried to pass both Bruegman and Kracht, but his car got loose and before he could cross the finish line, Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk slipped past for fourth. Wilkinson placed fifth.

BRUNS | first career victory at track

Ron Pettitt (12) took a second place finish in the feature.

Jason Wilkinson (5) took a third place finish.

Competitive class

Neil Bruns brought his Stock Car home to his first feature win at the track.

Bruns used the high side to avoid the developing hole in turn one until lap eight after a restart he nailed the rut.

He lost the lead to Tanner Pettitt of Pierce. Pettitt led four laps before Bruns regained the top spot. During this whole time Tanner's dad, Ron Pettitt, was working on Bruns' back bumper.

A caution came out just after the leaders took the white flag. That set up a green-white-checkered finish between the top Pettitt, Tanner Pettitt of Wayne and Neligh.

As the five cars all five could hit the blanket.

Neil Bruns was second, Ron Pettitt fourth and Tanner Pettitt fifth.

On exit of turn one the cars were side-by-side. Neil Bruns second, Ron Pettitt was on the Bruns' side.

rn one, the top three e, Chad Brun leading, d and Wilkinson third. n the back bumpers of three, Wilkinson tried to stay under Chad Brun, who was trying to clip the grass on the infield. Neil Brun was still alongside on the high side with Ron Pettitt and Tanner Pettitt in tow.

Chad Brun lost momentum into four and slid slightly up the track. The cars running the high side had the momentum out of fourth turn, giving Neil Brun the victory and Ron Pettitt the runner-up place.

Wilkinson edged out Chad Brun at the finish line with Tanner Pettitt rounding out the top 5.

It was Neil Brun's first career victory at the track. He led 14 laps.
