Gage Koch

Hobby Stock Winner

Gage Koch (96) took his first victory of the season and his third career at the track.

Koch captures victory

Gage Koch had an easy time leading the race, but it came down to the final turn to only win by half-a-car-length.

The Norfolk driver started on the pole and as he cruised out front, the battle for second heated between Mark Arduser of Battle Creek and Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk.

However, a caution on lap 5 slowed the field. On the re-start, Lehman managed to pull into the second position behind Koch.

For the next several laps, the top spots were nosed-to-tail with Koch out front, Lehman in second and Kaleb Jasperson of Norfolk running third.

With two laps remaining,

Jasperson made the pass on Lehman for second. As the leaders took the white flag, Jasperson closed in on Koch.

On the exit of turn four to take the checkered flag, Jasperson pulled alongside Koch but came up short.

It was Koch's first win of the season and his third career win at the track. Jasperson took second for his best effort so far at the track.

Lehman came through third. His best finish so far this season. Fourth went to Jay Poessnecker of Atkinson, his third four place finish this season.

Rounding out the top 5 was Lance Mielke of Norfolk. It was his fifth top 5 this season.

Dustin Jackson (22x) runs his heat race.

Kaleb Jasperson (4x) and Jay Poessnecker (20P) compete in the feature last week. Jasperson finished second and Poessnecker placed fourth.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) leads Tanner Uehling (58T) and Bo Cleveland (3B) during their heat race. Meyer later took his ninth feature win, Uehling placed fourth in the feature, as Cleveland took fifth.

Ramsey's ninth victory

Ramsey Meyer continued his reign of terror in the Sport Compact class.

With a quick start at the drop of the green flag, Meyer was second going into turn one. By the exit of turn two on the next lap Meyer was leading.

In fact, he led the final 11 laps and won by nearly a straightaway.

Parker Vollbrecht of Stanton took second when he passed Dylan Kesting of Hoskins with two laps remaining.

Kesting, who led the first lap, ran second for most of the race, before finishing third.

Tanner Uehling of Norfolk split his night between his Sport Compact and his new Hobby Stock ride. Uehling finished fourth in the Sport Compacts.

Bo Cleveland continues his top 5 streak finishing fifth for a third time.

Zach Zentner (22z) competes with Devin Johnson (7J) and Eric Vanosdall (3) in the feature. Zentner won his second feature of the season.

Zentner claims another victory

Zach Zentner patiently waited for an opening and when the door opened, he jumped through, on his way to winning his second feature of the season last week.

The Cedar Rapids driver ran down and followed Ben Sukup of Norfolk for 14 laps, but when Sukup hooked a rut in turn two, Sukup's car drifted off the bottom, opening the inside line for Zentner.

Zentner charged alongside Sukup and a straightaway later, Zentner was controlling the field.

Once out front, Zentner pulled away to lead the final 11 laps for the victory. It was Zentner's sixth top 5 of the season. Zentner increased his lead in the points standings by one, as Jim Johnson of Plainview finished in the runner-up spot.

Johnson broke into the top 3 on lap 16 and made a last lap pass on Sukup for second place. Johnson, who also has six top 5s, is second in the points, five points out of first.

Sukup, who led 14 laps, took third in the feature. He has six top 5 finishes and remains third in the points.

The Osbornes took the next two spots. Robert Osborne of Norfolk took home fourth as his son, Chase, also of Norfolk, finished out the top 5.

TeJay Mielke (77) won his third feature of the season.

Mielke takes third win

TeJay Mielke led the first four laps and the last six laps to win his third feature of the season.

The race was plagued with seven cautions, before the race officials called the feature due to time.

Mielke started on the inside of the second row and went to the front quickly. However, Pierce's Ron Pettitt did not let him go far, as they locked horns for several laps.

Eventually, Pettitt made the pass and Mielke faded to battle for third.

Pettitt led three laps but had Doug Adamy of Columbus at his bumper. Adamy passed Pettitt several times, however, a caution came erasing the pass.

Then on lap eight, Pettitt had a tire go flat bringing out a caution and Adamy inherited the lead.

Adamy led two laps before Mielke jumped back out front and pulled away.

After two more cautions, the race was called because of a time limit. Mielke was given the checkered flag.

Norfolk's Tiffany Bittner took second, Shawn Primrose of Norfolk was third. Chad Bruns of Wayne finished fourth and Jason Wilkinson of Neligh rounded out the top 5.

Above, Tiffany Bittner (95B) second in the feature. Right, Jason Wilkinson (5) and Doug Adamy (93) finished fifth and sixth in the feature, respectively.

Dusty Poessnecker (22p) took his first victory in the SportMod division this season.

Poessnecker claims victory

It was not Dusty Poessnecker's best start, but it was his best finish as he won his first SportMod feature at Off Road Speedway last week.

The Atkinson driver started on the pole but lost four positions at the start in turns one and two. And when it came to the last lap Poessnecker had to out race Karl Brewer of Vermillion, SD. to take the win by a few feet.

The race saw two quick cautions but went uninterrupted for the final 19 laps.

Cole Haddix of Elgin, who started behind Poessnecker, led the first nine laps. Haddix ran the inside line holding off several different drivers to hold onto the lead.

Poessnecker was the first car to make a challenge for the lead before Cameron Meyer of Pierce took his turn at Haddix.

As Haddix and Meyer battled it out for the lead, Poessnecker got a good run on the high side and made the pass for the lead.

A battle for second between Haddix, Meyer and Brewer gave Poessnecker breathing room out front.

However, once Brewer moved into second after battling several laps with Meyer, Poessnecker's lead evaporated.

For the final three laps, Brewer and Poessnecker raced side-by-side.

In the final corner, a lapped car slowed Brewer, but Poessnecker drifted high out of turn four. The two dragged raced to the checkered flag with Poessnecker edging out Brewer for the win.

It was Poessnecker's fourth start in the SportMod class at the track moving up from the Hobby Stock division earlier this season.

For Brewer, it was his first trip to the track this season.

Meyer took home his sixth top 5 after finishing third.

Robbie Thome of Spalding finished fourth for his fifth top 5.

Jeremy Gnat rounded out the top 5. It was his second top 5 of the season.

Karl Brewer (13K) battles with Cameron Meyer (05) for the track as Meyer placed third for his sixth top 5.

Cole Haddix (05) runs inside TJ Wallingford before finishing sixth.

Dean Wilkinson (52), Tim Swartz (22) and Troy Bruns (75B) start their heat race.

Dusty Poessnecker (22P) celebrates his victory.

er (21) in the feature. Brewer took a second on his first visit to top 5 of the season.

(25t) during their heat race. Haddix led nine laps in the feature
