Bittner victorious again

She waited patiently for the openings and when it was clear, Norfolk’s Tiffany Bittner was pacing the field to claim her second win of the season.

Tracy Buck of Neligh led the first nine laps as his consistent laps held off Brent Jochum of Norfolk and then Bittner for several laps.

On lap nine, Buck pushed up the track and opened the door for Bittner. Sliding by, Bittner went on to take her fourth career victory at the track.

Buck matched his best effort at the track finishing second for his second top 5 of the season.

Defending champion and points leader TeJay Mielke of Norfolk placed third for his sixth top 5 of the season – the only driver left in the class to have all top 5s.

Jochum crossed the line fourth and Wes Hochstein of Randolph rounded out the top 5.

Chad Jensen took the checkered flag first in his heat race and feature. It was his first win at the track.

Jensen takes victory on last-lap pass

He was a half-a-lap down to the leader with half the feature laps gone, but two late cautions gave Chad Jensen his first career win at the track.

The Norfolk driver was third behind Wakefield's Travis Birkley and Norfolk's Robert Osborne on the final restart and with nine laps remaining.

Jensen fell back on his first attempt to the front, but on his second lunge, he got by Osborne for second on lap 22.

Jensen got the low side to work and as the leaders took the white flag, Jensen pulled alongside Birkley in turns one and two.

Birkley had the advantage into turn three, but Jensen threw his car into the final turns and when they exited turn four, Jensen was in front of Birkley to take the win.

Birkley was second and Osborne was third.

Fourth went to Zach Zentgraf, Cedar Rapids and Bob Milanovich. Pierce rounded out the top 5.

Travis Birkley (78) led 23 of the 25 laps, but finished second in the feature.
