Back-to-back for Johnson

Chris Johnson backed up his first win of the season with another win last week.

This time the Bloomfield driver had to hold off the hard charging Ben Sukup of Norfolk.

Sukup tangled with a lapped car while leading the previous week's feature. He was penalized for the action and Chris Johnson went on to win the race.

Last week, Johnson was the driver to beat as he pulled away from the field, but again slower cars played a factor in the finish of the 25-lap feature.

On lap 23, Johnson caught two lapped cars battling for the 12th position. Both cars held there line, leaving Johnson nowhere to go.

As he waited for one car to make the pass, his half-straightway lead was reduced to a car length.

Just as it looked like he could make the pass, they caught another lapped car making the path blocked again.

Sukup threw his car into turn three for the final time and managed to get a nose in front of Johnson in the middle of the turn, but Johnson came back and had the run off of turn four to take the win by a car length.

It was Johnson's second straight win at the season and his third career victory at the track.

Sukup was penalized for cutting the corner on the final lap and was given third, as Doug Tomka of Stanton inherited second.

Jim Johnson of Plainview took home fourth as Chad Jensen of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Above, Chad Jensen (73) finished fifth for his fourth top 5. Right, Ben Sukup (07) leads Doug Tomka (3) and Jim Johnson (36) in the feature. Tomka was credited with finishing second, Sukup was given third and Johnson placed fourth.

Lance Mielke (7M) races Devon Davidson (4D) in the feature. Mielke won his second feature of the season.

Mielke's second win

Lance Mielke worked his way to the front of the field to win his second feature of the season.

Mielke worked the low side for the first part of the race, but he stalled out when he got to third place.

Switching to the high side, he continued to advance and on lap seven he took the lead from Tanner Uehling of Norfolk.

It looked as if Mielke was going to pull away for the win, but Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus and Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk ran him down in the closing laps.

The three took the checkered flag three-wide. Mielke took the win, Pospisil edged out Fluckiger for second.

Fourth went to Dustin Jackson of O'Neill and Ramsey Meyer of Pierce rounded out the top 5.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26) won his second feature of the season and holds second in the points.

Hoskinson takes second victory

Jeremy Hoskinson broke out of his second place slump to climb back into the Winner's Circle last week.

The Norfolk driver won the season opener but has come up short four times, finishing second each time.

Hoskinson only led the final three laps for his second win of the season.

Wes Hochstein of Randolph and Mark Arduser of Battle Creek kept the excitement up from the drop of the green flag.

The two drivers exchanged the lead several times as the Hochstein led for nine laps and Arduser led three circuits.

Once the two sorted out the order, Hochstein pulled to a half-straightaway lead.

It took Hoskinson until lap 10 to move into second place and he ran down Hochstein in a single lap. He made the pass for the lead on the next circuit.

Hoskinson won by four-car lengths for his fourth career win at the track. Hochstein crossed the line for second in his best effort of the season.

Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk took home third for her eighth top 5. Fourth went to Austin Brauner of St. Edward. It was his fourth top 5.

Rounding out the top 5 was TeJay Mielke for his 10th top 5.

TeJay Mielke took his 10th top 5 finish and continues to lead the point standings.

Wes Hochstein (21B) and Mark Arduser exchanged the lead several times during the feature. Hochstein led nine laps and Arduser led 3. Hochstein finished the feature fourth.

Kyle Prauner won his seventh feature of the season as Dylan Pospisil (04) took home second for the third time.

Prauner adds another to win column

It took three attempts to the start the SportMod feature - for Kyle Prauner the third start was his slowest start of all three.

However, the Norfolk driver made it to the front to win his seventh feature of the season.

Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk led the first four laps, before Dylan Pospisil of Norfolk made the pass to lead the next three laps.

As Pospisil was taking the lead,

Prauner was working on second place. Once out front, Prauner separated from the field. Two caution periods bunched the field and on the final five laps, Prauner opened a half-straightway lead.

It was Prauner's 16th career win at the track and his 24th career top 5 in 26 starts.

The battle for second heated after the last caution between Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton and Pospisil.

For the final four laps, the drivers went side-by-side. Pospisil was using the high side and got the run off four to take the advantage at the finish line for second.

Vollbrecht took home third for his 10th top 5 of the season.

Tiffany Bittner took her best finish in the class at fourth. Colby Langenberg of Norfolk took fifth for his sixth top 5.
