Kyle Prauner (5K) runs in a pack in his heat race. He later won his eighth feature of the season.

Prauner continues winning

For the eighth time, Kyle Prauner of Norfolk took the checkered flag first in the feature, leading the final 13 laps.

Cameron Meyer of Pierce took advantage of his pole-position draw and jumped out to an early lead. Prauner started on the outside of the third row and was running second after four laps. Three laps later he ran down Meyer and made the pass before the first of three cautions slowed the field.

On the final restart, Prauner jumped to the high side and set sail as the battle for second came down to Meyer, Colby Langenberg of Norfolk and Brian Osantowski of Columbus.

Osantowski got around Meyer for second right away, but a lap later Langenberg got around Meyer. A lap later Langenberg got a run off turn one and sped past Osantowski for second.

Prauner won by half-a-straightaway for his 17th career win at the track.

Langenberg took second for his seventh top 5. Osantowski captured third for his first top 5 in two starts.

Meyer had his third top 5 after he finished fourth. Justin Addison of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Colby Langenberg (1J) took his seventh top 5 finishing second last week, Lance Mielke (7m) races Brooke Fluckiger (2B) and Joelle Reynolds (53J). Later, Mielke won his third feature.

Mielke captures third feature victory

Lance Mielke showed his patience last week, as he won for the third time.

The Norfolk native worked his way from the outside of the fourth row to the third position in two laps and by the third lap he was second following leader Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus.

Mielke tried several times to get to the inside of Fluckiger, but she ran a tight line on the bottom.

After several laps, Mielke moved up the track and slowly he gained momentum and by lap eight he was leading. Mielke continued to run high as Fluckiger continued to fight back.

With two laps remaining, a caution regrouped the field.

On the restart, Mielke went back to work, but Fluckiger was overrun by Dustin Jackson of O'Neill first, then Ramsey Meyer of Pierce.

Jackson made an attempt at the lead on the final lap, but Mielke maintained his speed on the high side and pulled off the win.

Jackson finished second, as Meyer held off Fluckiger for third. Fluckiger took fourth. Randy Nelson of Albion rounded out the top 5.

Randy Nelson (18) took fifth place in the feature.

Dustin Jackson (22x) finished second in the feature.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) races between Neal Reynolds (77N) and Codie Mielke (77) in their heat race.

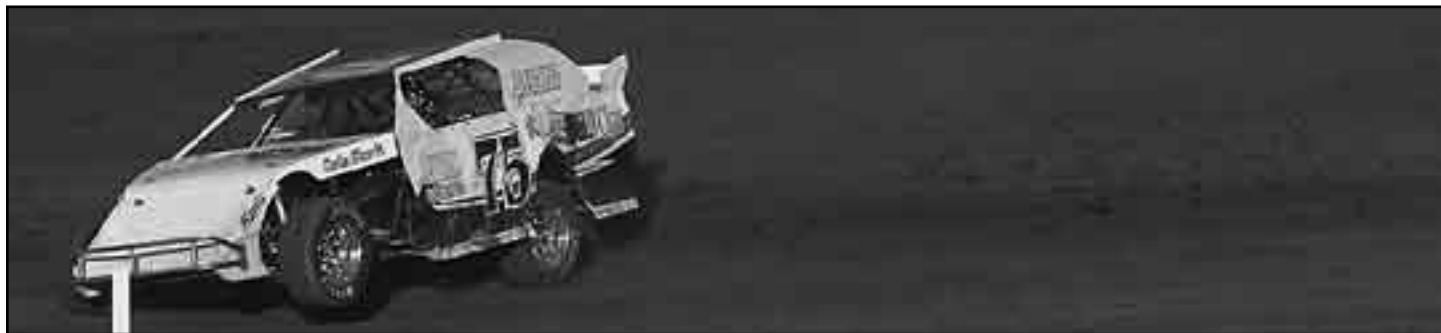

Kandie Smidt (k2) gets turned sideways and then is struck by Devon Davidson (4d).

Above, Brian Osantowski (999) finished third in the feature. Above right, Matt Haase (81) won the first heat race.

Rod Branson (54) spins out during his heat race. Justin Addison (26J) and Kyle Prauner (5K) were able to miss, but Tyler Afrank could not. Afrank and Branson were towed off.

Chad Bruns (11) took his sixth feature victory of the season and his eighth career win at the track.

Four straight wins

Chad Bruns had all the luck on his side last week, as he added another win to his total.

The Wayne driver was on a winning streak going into the night and the driver drew the pole position for the feature.

Not having much to do, Bruns simply pulled away from the field, as Jason Hames of Crofton and Shawn Primrose of Norfolk battled for second side-by-side.

A late caution bunched the field giving Primrose a chance to challenge for the victory.

Primrose ran hard into the corners, but struggled off, Bruns had the momentum on the high side.

Bruns took his sixth win of the season and his eighth career win at the track. Primrose continues to rack up the second places. He has seven now.

Ron Pettitt of Pierce, who got by Hames on the final restart, took third. Hames crossed the line fourth and John Hadcock of Wayne rounded out the top 5.

Shawn Primrose (1) battles with Mark Poessnecker (69m), Tyler Pettitt (4) and Ron Pettitt (12) during their heat race. Primrose finished second in the feature, Ron Pettitt placed third.

Mielke does it again

When you put the points leader on the pole position, it forces the other cars to play catch up.

TeJay Mielke of Norfolk picked up his third win of the season and he had little trouble doing it.

Tiffany Bittner and Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk closed the gap on Mielke, but the two locked horns in the closing laps allowing Mielke to maintain his distance.

Mielke caught and handled lapped traffic to take his eighth career win at the track. Hoskinson and Bittner banged doors several times, but Hoskinson finally cleared Bittner on the white flag lap for second. Bittner took third.

Austin Brauner of St. Edward took home fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Jeff Warren of Columbus Jeremy Hoskinson (26) took second in the feature. It was his 10 top 5 of the season.

Doug Tomka (3) won his second feature of the season, his fourth top 5.

Brad Vogt (11) edges out Chris Johnson (7J) and Zach Zentner (22z) at the checkered flag.

Travis Birkley (78) finished fourth in the feature.

Tomka victorious again

Eight cautions hampered the Late Model feature last week, but overcoming the repeated restarts, Doug Tomka took his second win of the season.

The Stanton native led the final 20 laps through five cautions. The last seven laps was the longest consecutive green flag period, which was enough for Tomka to take the win by a straightaway.

Junior Coover of Norfolk led the first lap before Mike Babcock of Creighton stuck his nose out front to lead four laps.

Bob Milander of Pierce was looking to take the lead next, but he got together with Babcock and Milander appeared to have a mechanical failure.

Mike Babcock (83) and Bob Milander (77B) battle for the lead in the feature.

Ben Sukup (07) races outside of Junior Coover (73x) as Robert Osborne (35) follows through.

Tomka took advantage of the two leaders tangling and he jumped to the lead. Once out front Tomka decided to stay on the high side.

Jim Johnson of Plainview was the first challenger for the lead, before Ben Sukup of Norfolk worked on Tomka.

On the final restart Tomka slowly pulled away to take his second-career win at the track.

Sukup had a comfortable second place finish, as Johnson came home third.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield ran in the top 5 all night. He finished fourth and rounding out fifth was Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids.
