Shannon Pospisil

Shannon Pospisil (00) celebrates his second win of the season.

Pospisil takes second win

With just a puff of smoke coming from under the car, Shannon Pospisil rolled into victory lane for the second time this season.

The Norfolk driver said his car has been belching smoke for several weeks but obviously has not slowed him down.

Pospisil started on the inside of the sixth row and quickly moved to the front. At the drop of the green flag the inside line moved faster than the outside did and by the end of the first lap Pospisil was fourth.

One lap later he was second and he passed Codie Mielke of Norfolk to lead lap three.

Dustin Jackson of O'Neill ran down Pospisil, but after the two go together, Jackson fell back.

A late caution gave Jackson another shot for the lead, but on the restart Jackson suffered a problem and pulled from the track.

Ramsey Meyer of Pierce was next to run down Pospisil, but laps run out and Pospisil picked up his second win of the season.

Meyer was second. Mielke settled for third and brother, Lance Mielke, placed fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus.

Lance Mielke has an eight-point lead over Pospisil in the title hunt.

Defending champion, Meyer was unable to attend one night and has had several DNFs and finds himself 55 points out of first.

Tanner Uehling of Norfolk was second last season with Pospisil third. Lance Mielke was fourth.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) took second place last week. It was his 11th top 5.

Chad Bruns (11) won his seven feature last week.

Bruns looks to repeat title bid

Chad Bruns has locked up his second track title having won seven times including last week.

The feature last week went straight through as Bruns led 14 of 15 laps. Fred DeSive led the first circuit before Bruns jumped out front and won by more than a straightaway.

The battle for second heated up in the closing laps with newcomer Preston Janzing of Atkinson, DeSive and Ron Pettitt of Pierce

DeSive and Pettitt locked horns which allowed Janzing to catch up with the duo.

Without hesitation, Janzing used the high side to go from fourth to second in a lap and a half.

Janzing went on to take second and DeSive took third. Pettitt found himself up the track, allowing John Hadcock of Wayne to get by for fourth. Pettitt was fifth.

Bruns won by 16 points over Jason Wilkinson of Neligh last season in the title bid. Pettitt was third last year, as Cedar Rapid's Zach Zentner, who is in a battle for a championship title in the Late Model class this season, was fourth.

Preston Janzing (20J) finished second on his first visit to the track.

Fred DeSive (31K) leads John Hadcock (45) to the finish line.

They followed each other in the feature as well. DeSive was third and Hadcock placed fourth.

Above, Joelle Reynolds (53J) leads Kyle Reed (42), Codie Mielke (77) and Mark Benedict (79) in their heat race.

Brooke Fluckiger (2B) took fifth in the feature for her 10th top 5 of the season.

Lance Mielke (7m) passes Neil Reynolds (77N) in their heat race. Mielke won the heat race and later took fourth in the feature. Reynolds was second in the heat.

Codie Mielke (77) takes the checkered in his heat race. Mielke finished third in the feature.

Kyle Prauner (5K) races with Eric Haase in their heat race. Prauner later won his 10th feature of the season, while Haase was third.

Prauner extends lead in title hunt

With his second career title nearly in the bag, Kyle Prauner of Norfolk won his 10th feature of the season last week. He led 10 of the 20 laps.

Chad Kohle of Stuart led the first 10 laps before Prauner made the pass on the inside.

A caution with two laps remaining set up a green-white-checked finish.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk lined up second behind Prauner, but could not get the run he needed.

It was Prauner's 19th track career feature victory. Langenberg took home second — his fourth runner-up finish of the season.

The next three positions were all Haases. Eric Haase of Norfolk took home his best effort at the third position. Joey Haase, also of Norfolk, had his best finish at fourth and Matt Haase of Norfolk took fifth.

Prauner leads the point standings by 18 points over Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton. Last season, Vollbrecht was second to Prauner by 11 points.

Only three cars ran the full season — Prauner, Vollbrecht and Langenberg.

Colby Langenberg (1J) took second in the feature.

Joey Haase (2) took fourth in the feature.

Matt Haase (81) grabbed a fifth place finish in the feature.

Cory Haase (02) and Ben Sukup (07) battle in their heat race. Sukup later won his third feature of the season.

Sukup wins feature; title hunt a close race

Ben Sukup led for a brief moment just after the drop of the green flag, but the Norfolk driver found his way back to the front to win his third feature of the season.

Junior Coover of Norfolk led the first three laps; Pierce's Brad Vogt led two, before Sukup moved out front. Sukup then drove away from the field to win by more than a straight-away.

Vogt took second with Robert Osborne of Norfolk placing third. Travis Birkley of Wakefield took home fourth, as Bob Milander of Pierce rounded out the top 5.

Despite Sukup's three wins, the most in the class, four other drivers look to win the track title.

Leading the group is rookie Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids who has posted seven top 5s. Two points back is Jim Johnson of Plainview and four points back from Zentner is both Birkley and Osborne.

Osborne is the defending champion winning by four points over Eric Vanosdall of Winside. Birkley finished fourth last season, as Johnson was fifth.

Gage Koch (96) took his first feature win of the season and his second career track win.

Youngster captures victory, again

With three great restarts, Gage Koch led from the drop of the green to the checkered flag to pickup his first win of the season.

The Norfolk youngster jumped out front from his outside pole position and consistently held a four-car length over second, but it was his restarts that propelled him to victory.

The first half of the race was clean, but the last half had three cautions. Each time, Koch distanced himself from the field and was able to maintain the distance through to the finish.

Jim Kimmel of Norfolk ran second for most of the second half, with TeJay Mielke all over his bumper. Kimmel did take second for his best effort of the season, as Mielke was third.

Mark Arduser of Battle Creek continues to run up front and took home fourth, as Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Defending track champion Mielke goes into tonight with a four-point lead over Hoskinson. Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk did not have her best night last week and dropped to seven points back from Mielke.

Mielke has seen his share of bad luck this season, but starting up front may change his luck. He won the title last season by 14 points over Hoskinson. Brent Jochum of Norfolk was third, Kimmel was fourth and Arduser took fifth.

Jim Kimmel (17K) took his best finish of the season at second place. It was his seventh top 5.

Jeremy Hoskinson

Wes Hochstein won feature.

Mark Arduser (4)

(26) took fifth in the feature and his in the hunt for a title.
