The Columbus driver posted his first win in 2018 and has 9 top 5s in 17 nights at the track since opening 2015.

Doug Hilkemann of Wynot led the first three laps before slipping up the track allowing Johnson to get by on the inside.

Cameron Meyer of Pierce challenged Johnson next, however Meyer could not match Johnson's speed.

With two laps remaining Meyer was passed by the previous week's winner, James Roebuck of Genoa.

Roebuck got to within a half straightway from Johnson before Johnson took the checkered flag. Johnson won, Roebuck was second and Meyer finished third. Hilkemann slipped to fourth and Colby Langenberg of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Colby Langenberg (1) loses a wheel during his heat race. He came back in the feature and finished fifth.

Cameron Wilkinson (5), Ron Pettitt (12) and Justin Addison (26J) start their heat race. Wilkinson later won the feature on a last lap pass on Addison.

Wilkinson makes last-lap pass for win

Taking advantage of a late caution, Cameron Wilkinson made a last lap pass to win the stock car division feature.

The Neligh driver got by Justin Addison of Meadow Grove in the final turn and outraced him to the finish line.

Addison, who started deep in the field, managed to work his way through the field and then run down Chad Bruns of Wakefield in the 15-lap feature.

Bruns led from the drop of the green flag from his outside pole position. Addison caught Bruns and the two battled side-by-side for several laps. Addison got by on lap 12.

Addison took the white flag, however, a caution came out and the field was bunched up for a green-white-checkered finish.

On the restart, Addison went to the inside line. Bruns and Addison got together exiting turn two, tagged again on the backstretch, before getting together again entering turn three.

Addison spun out.

Officials penalized Bruns sending him to the pits.

On the restart, Addison went back to running the bottom, as Wilkinson made his presence known. Using the high side, Wilkinson passed Fred DeSive of O'Neill then ran down Addison on the final lap.

Driving deep into three alongside Addison, Wilkinson got the car to grip and was able to pass Addison on the exit of the turn to pick up the victory by a fender.

Addison, the previous week's winner took second. DeSive placed third. Chuck Sands of Neligh took home fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Tanner Pettitt of Norfolk.

Tanner Pettitt (2T) took a fifth place finish.

Mielke pulls away for first win of season

Marching quickly through the field, Lance Mielke picked up his first win of the season at the track.

The Norfolk driver split cars on the way to the front and was trying to run down leader Stephanie Reynolds of Norfolk when the first caution came out.

On the restart, Reynolds and Mielke raced side-by-side for several laps when the second and final caution came out.

On the final restart, Mielke pulled away for the victory. It then became a close race for second.

Reynolds had the line, as Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk looked several times on the inside to get by Reynolds.

Eventually, Reynolds pulled a slight advantage over Pospisil to take home second. Pospisil finished third.

Nic Kimmel of Norfolk crossed the line fourth as Wyatt Lehman rounded out the top 5.

Wyatt Lehman (6) took fifth place in the feature.

Top three in the Hobby Stocks were Lance Mielke, Stephanie Reynolds and Shannon Pospisil.

Tad Pospisil (04) led all 30 laps to win the Tri-State Late Models main feature.

Pospisil captures victory

Taking the green flag from the outside pole, Tad Pospisil zipped to the front and thirty straight laps later, he was the first to take the checkered flag to win the Tri-State Late Model feature last week.

The Norfolk native had little trouble maintaining the lead as Nate Beyenhof of Rock Rapids, IA closed the gap several times, but was unable to challenge for the victory.

Pospisil caught the back of the field halfway through the feature, but still had no trouble handling the traffic.

With just under 10 to go, a battle for second developed as Justin Zeitner of Malvern, IA slipped by Beyenhof. Chris Johnson of Bloomfield then challenged Beyenhof for third.

Pospisil would take the win by nearly a straightway. Zeitner was second. Beyenhof held off for third and Johnson finished fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Gary Brown, Jr. of Brandon, SD.
