Jesse Sobbing (99) took home the feature victory in the Super Late Model Racing.

Sobbing grabs victory

Rim riding his way to victory, Jesse Sobbing led all 30-laps in the Super Late Model Racing feature last week to pick up the large check.

The Malvern, IA driver started on the pole and pulled away from the field. The only trouble he had was when he caught the back of the field and had to deal with lapped traffic racing side-by-side.

Bill Leighton of La Vista and Kyle Berck of Marquette battled for second. Leighton took the spot at the checkered flag. Berck took home third.

Norfolk's Ben Sukup was the highest finishing track regular. Sukup struggled in his heat race and had to run the B-feature.

Transferring to the A-feature from the B-feature, Sukup started in the back of the 24-car field. He passed 15 cars to finish fourth in the main event.

Rounding out the top 5 was Andrew Kosiski of La Vista.

Zach Zeitner of Bellevue won the first of two B-features, as Sukup was second. Curt Schroeder of Newton, IA won the second B-feature. Andy Eickhoff of Albion took second.

Brenda Milander and Hudson Milander meet Jesse Sobbing after the feature race.

Langenberg gets first feature victory

With no cautions thrown in the SportMod feature, the race went quick, and Colby Langenberg blistered the field to pick up his first win of the season.

The Norfolk driver worked his way to the front and passed Jason King of Norfolk for the top spot.

King led the first 5 laps before Langenberg made the pass to lead the final 10 laps.

Langenberg opened a healthy lead as Tyler Afrank of Norfolk pursued after him, followed by Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek.

The order never changed. Langenberg won by a straight-away. Afrank nearly had another straightaway lead over the third-place car of Gnat.

Gnat edged out David Johnson of Columbus for third. Johnson was fourth and Cameron Meyer of Pierce rounded out the top 5.

Johnson picked up his third heat race win as Meyer grabbed his second heat win.

Crews work to remove Nate Buck (56) and Shaughn Hendrix (11H) who went up and over the backstretch wall.

Tanner Uehling (58T) exits turn four in his heat race. Uehling won his first feature of the season.

Uehling captures win

The Hobby Stock saw the feature slowed twice and red flagged two more times.

Through it all, Norfolk's Tanner Uehling pulled out the victory leading 14 of the 15 laps.

The first red flag came when Shaughn Hendrix of Scribner and Nate Buck of Neligh went over the backstretch wall just passed the entrance. Both drivers climbed out of their cars.

The second came when Mark Arduser of Battle Creek was spun out in front of the field. The incident involved at least seven cars and blocked the track in the fourth corner.

But this whole time Uehling kept his pace leading the field. The battle came for second between Nic Kimmel, Lance Mielke, both of Norfolk and Neligh's Jason Wilkinson.

With a few laps remaining, the three were caught up in a battle which allowed Uehling to pull away for the win. His first of the season.

Wilkinson managed to get by both Kimmel and Mielke for second. Mielke got by Kimmel for third and Kimmel settled for fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk, who edged out Nate DeSive of O'Neill at the line.

Top 3 in the Hobby Stock feature were Tanner Uehling, Jason Wilkinson and Lance Mielke.

Kyle Wilkinson (52) exits turn four on his way to winning his heat race. He later took his first feature victory of the season.

Wilkinson races brother for first season victory

For 14 laps in the Stock Car division's 18-lap feature you could have thrown a blanket over the top 3 cars.

And when the dust settled, Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh took the win.

Wilkinson started on the outside of the second row and moved out front when he hooked up on the outside through three and four passing three cars in the process.

Once out front, he managed to keep the challengers behind him. First it was Chad Wakefield. Bruns did get by, but a caution on the pass. The caution also allowed Wil- brother Cameron Wilkinson, also of Neligh, to put pressure on the leader.

The race had five cautions, and Kyle Wilkinson zipped out from behind Bruns and Cameron Wilkinson side-by-side for second.

With two laps remaining, Kyle Wilkinson managed to pull ahead of Cameron Wilkinson on the outside and the two duke it out to the end.

Kyle Wilkinson got a better run through turns three and four and took the lead by a car-length. Cameron Wilkinson was a car-length in front of Bruns for second and took home third.

Fourth went to the previous winner, Ryan Harris of Homestead. Bruegman of Elkhorn rounded out the top 5.

Chad Bruns (11) had his second top 5 this season when he finished third in the feature.

Kyle Wilkinson (52) leads his brother Cameron Wilkinson (5) into turn three during their heat race. Kyle later won the feature.
