Ben Sukup (07) races with Travis Birkley (78) in their heat. Sukup later won his second feature of the season.

Sukup returns to winner's circle

Starting on the outside of the fourth row, Norfolk's Ben Sukup picked his way through the field to the front and picked up his second win of the season.

The defending champion could run inside or outside and slowly passed cars as the race went without caution.

Sukup broke into the top 3 on lap 11 getting around Matt Haase of Norfolk. Next up was Alex Banks of Meadow Grove for the second spot.

Using the high side to pass Haase, Sukup dropped to the inside to get by Banks on lap 13.

By now Johnson had pulled a slight lead over second and was working lapped traffic, giving Sukup a chance to close the gap in two laps.

Sukup dove into low into corners and eventually got by Johnson.

Once out front he slowly moved away until catching lapped cars who were racing for position.

Two laps later as he took the white flag, Sukup managed to get away from Johnson for the victory.

Johnson rolled through second and Haase was third. Banks fell to fourth and Kyle Prauner of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

James Roebuck (75) took his fifth heat race win and later won his fourth feature.

Three-in-a-row for Genoa's Roebuck

With a 48-game baseball season, James Roebuck has devoted much of his summer attending his eight-year-old son's baseball games.

The Genoa driver has been able to race on Thursdays and Fridays, but the weekend was spent with his son.

Now that the baseball season is over, Roebuck has been on a winning streak, which was extended to three in a row last week.

Roebuck started on the outside of the fourth row as outside polesitter Aaron French of Norfolk paced the field for seven laps.

Norfolk's Tyler Afrank was running second when the first caution was thrown, but quickly fell to fifth on the restart.

Regrouping, Afrank regained the three spots lost and moved back into second. He took the lead from French on lap eight.

Afrank led for two laps before Roebuck completed the "slide job" to move out front.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk tried the "slide job" on Roebuck, but Roebuck was able to crossover and regain the top spot.

Roebuck went on to win his third in a row and his fourth this second on seven visits to the track.

Langenberg held off Cameron Meyer of Pierce for second, as the two drivers ran side-by-side Aaron French led seven laps in the feature. He finished eighth in the feature.

Wes Hochstein (21B) posted a fourth place finish on his first trip to the track this season.

in the closing laps. Meyer was second.

Wes Hochstein of Randolph posted a fourth-place finish on his first visit to the track. Rounding out the top 5 was Devon McMartin of Canton, SD.

Greg Berry (67) captured the 600cc nonwinged micro sprints feature event.

Kyle Wilkinson (52) races with Tanner Cunningham (55) in their heat race. Wilkinson later won his third feature of the season. Cunningham placed 10th in the feature.

Wilkinson wins third feature

With two cars failing postrace inspection, Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh found himself with the winner's trophy.

Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk and Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh were disqualified as Cameron Wilkinson was the first to take the checkered flag and Hoskinson crossed the line in fourth.

Kyle Wilkinson started fifth row inside and was running seventh after four laps. By lap nine, Kyle Wilkinson was in a three-car battle for what would be first place after the disqualifications. Neil Bruns of Norfolk and Chad Bruns of Wakefield, along with Kyle Wilkinson were locked into a battle for the eventual top spot.

Wilkinson cleared both cars to take the lead and eventually the win. It was his third victory of the season.

Chad Bruns was given second and Neil Bruns finished third. Fourth was inherited by Derek Schi of Neligh and rounding out the top 5 was Tyler Steckelberg of Norfolk, who was credited with leading six laps.

Chuck Sands (74x) rolls to his top during his heat race.

Neil Bruns (74) took his third top 5 of the season, placing third in the feature.

IMCA STOCK CARS STANDINGS

Cameron Meyer (21) finished third in the feature.

The top 3 in the SportMod feature were: Colby Langenberg (2nd), James Roebuck (1st) and Cameron Meyer (3rd).

Devon McMartin (57x) finished fifth in the feature. His second top 5 in as many starts.

Jonathan Jensen (25), Travis Suhr (56) and Tim Swartz (22) race their heat race. Jensen had the highest feature finish at seventh place.

Wyatt Lehman won both his heat race and feature. It was his first feature win of the season and his second career win a Lance Mielke posted his ninth top 5 finishing second.

Lehman captures firs

Wyatt Lehman made the switch from Sport Compacts to Hobby Stock back in 2017 and had only one win since making the change. Now he has two.

The Norfolk driver jumped up to the Hobby Stock division in 2017, got his first Hobby Stock win in 2018 and broke his winless streak last week, holding off Lance Mielke of Norfolk for the win.

But it was not easy.

Lehman started on the outside of the second row and was running second when a red flag was thrown for a three-car crash on the frontstretch.

On the restart, Lehman raced Dustin Jackson of O'Neill for the lead. Jackson led the first eight laps of the 15-lap feature.

Once out front, Lehman had to hold off Mielke who was able to get alongside, but unable to make the pass.

Above, Tanner Uehling (58T) finished fourth in the feature. Below, Nic Kimmel (K17) took his seventh top 5 placing fifth in the feature.

Dustin Jackson (22x) leads a group into turn three during their heat race. Jackson

On the final lap, Mielke gave Lehman a tap on his rear bumper, but Lehman did not falter and went on to win his first victory of the season and his second career win at the track.
Mielke took second for his ninth top 5, the most in the class. Jackson crossed the line third for his best effort of the season.

Tanner Uehling of Norfolk placed fourth and Nic Kimmel of Hoskins rounded out the top 5.

Mark Arduser (4) looks to see if he could continue after an incident on the frontstretch last week.

later finished third in the feature.
